About the Seminar

Dr. Gair's turnkey assessments and techniques will incorporate laser photobiomodulation to not only recalibrate and rejuvenate your patient's bodies, but also your practice! Dr. Gair will focus on laser science, cellular effects of laser according to peer reviewed research, its broad spectrum of applications, and how lasers can support patients for pain and inflammation by triggering the production of ATP, glutathione, and nitric oxide (a safe FDA approved answer for the ongoing opioid epidemic). Dr. Gair will put a special emphasis on recalibrating and resetting the nervous system to accelerate recovery and enhance performance techniques.

Dr. Gair will give proven, tested clinical insight jewels on which markers are "deal breakers" into your patient's progress. This pioneering doctor will present information and techniques to Doctors such as yourself, that are seeking ways to separate themselves from the competition by increasing your confidence and providing you with the tools to treat patients that other allopathic providers will not.
